Orgies Take Their Usual Heavy Toll In New York

Fewer Real Casualties—Death List Over Holidays Through Drinking "Bad Liquor" Raised to Total of Eighteen

NEW YORK, Jan. 1.—Taking toll of the events that make the aftermath of the celebrations, New York found that four persons had lost their lives, eight had been wounded by bullets fired by over-zealous celebrators, and several persons were injured by fire. The death list was raised to a total of eighteen.

And yet the advent of 1924 was celebrated with fewer casualties than has been the case in the past. Most of those hurt were victims of accident rather than drink.

Three deaths resulted from drink and liquor, including one of a woman who died of a heart attack after drinking too much.

One death by shooting came from a quarrel with a woman who was shot by a man who was drunk.

Winnipeg's Visited With Mostly Fire Over Night

Spectacular $700,000 Fire at a Huge Five-Store Wholesale Building of Tees and Perse, Limited, Manufacturers' Agents, on William Avenue—Fireman Is Overcome

WINNIPEG, Jan. 1.—New Year's night was marked by a spectacular fire that gutted the five-story building of Tees and Perse, Limited, manufacturers' agents, on William Avenue, and caused damage estimated at fully $700,000.

Teas and Perse
In addition to the Tees and Perse company, the building was occupied by the John Martin Paper Company, and the fire caused damage to the latter company's stock.

When Premier W. F. Massey of New Zealand arrived in the city at midnight aboard the National train bound for Vancouver, Mayor R. A. Buchanan and several citizens paid a visit to the private car.

Most of the goods in stock were of an inflammable nature, in addition to the matches, stocked by the company, which were the cause of the fire.

Storing in Basement
The fire started in the basement of the building, where a large quantity of matches were stored.

Asked about the comments made by the Manchester Guardian on the fire, it was intimated that possibly it might have been made during his speech in Vancouver on Thursday last.

Several members of the local government and their respective parties were in the city on the night of the fire.

Hitz Wins Mayor Chair Toronto, by Big Margin

Thomas Church Loses Election for the First Time in Twenty-four Years—Women's Vote Was Disappointing in Turnout

TORONTO, Jan. 1.—William Wesley Hitz was elected mayor of Toronto today by a decisive margin over the combined votes of former Mayor T. L. Church, M.P., and Colonel John A. Currie, M.L.A., the vote standing:

Hitz, 41,000.
Church, 23,775.
Currie, 23,775.

There was no highly controversial issue in the race for board of control.

The election, however, was a surprise to many, as Hitz was considered a long shot.

The feature of the election was the large vote of the women, who voted in large numbers.

Seventy thousand names were added to the rolls of the city during the year, and the women's vote was a factor in the election.

Her Chauffeur Shoots Man in Bathrobe Who Bothered His Employer

Both Miss Normand and Miss Edna Purviance Were in Apartment of Man at Time of Shooting—Chauffeur Gives Himself up to Police Saying "I've Shot a Man"

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Jan. 1.—Courtland D. Dines, said to be an oil operator of Denver, Colorado, was shot and fatally wounded in his apartment here tonight.

H. A. Kelly, alias R. C. Greer, chauffeur for Mabel Normand, motion picture actress, did the shooting, according to the police, who also held Miss Normand and Edna Purviance, also of the screen, for questioning.

The motion picture actresses were alleged to have driven away from the apartment house in their limousines shortly after the shooting.

The receiving hospital, surgeons held out little hope of saving Dines' life. Kelly gave himself up to the police and explained the shooting, according to detectives, as follows:

Waiting Outside
He and Miss Purviance were waiting outside the apartment house of the wheels of their limousine.

Miss Normand was in a taxi when the shooting took place, and when the taxi passed, she saw the chauffeur shoot the man in the bathrobe.

Miss Purviance, who was in the taxi with her, saw the chauffeur shoot the man in the bathrobe.

Eskimos Defeated Calgary Tigers in Brilliant Battle

Calgary Tigers in Brilliant Battle
Eskimos from Behind in Third Period, Turned Seemingly Defeat into Great Victory—Joe McCormick Made Good with a Bang by Opening the Scoring for the Locals

In one of the hardest fought games staged on local ice for many a long year, Kenny McKenzie's Eskimos won a sweet and fully earned triumph over Lloyd Turner's Calgary Tigers at the Arena No. 7's afternoon by the score of 4 to 3.

The brilliant finishing powers of the Eskimos were never given greater scope than they were yesterday, and that the Eskis are fighting beasts when their backs are to the wall was fully demonstrated to even the most dubious.

Tigers Strong.
The Calgary Tigers have not been serious contenders for the championship of the W. C. H. L. in the past two years, but in this season they have been a different team. They have been a team to be feared, and they have been a team to be respected. In the opening moments of the game, the Eskimos did not seem to be in the game, but they were. They were waiting for the Eskimos to make a mistake, and they were waiting for the Eskimos to make a mistake. They were waiting for the Eskimos to make a mistake, and they were waiting for the Eskimos to make a mistake.

Some Rough Play.
The first period was notable for considerable hand fighting on the part of some of the players. In this bout of the Tigers was the most prominent, making two times in the second period, and in the third period for giving Arthur his own when he was through. The last incident happened just after the Eskimos had taken the lead. The Eskimos had taken the lead, and the Eskimos had taken the lead.

The First Goal.
The first goal was scored by Joe McCormick in the first period. He was the first to score, and he was the first to score. He was the first to score, and he was the first to score. He was the first to score, and he was the first to score.

Goalie's Work.
The Eskimos' goalie, Johnnie, was the best of the game. He was the best of the game, and he was the best of the game. He was the best of the game, and he was the best of the game. He was the best of the game, and he was the best of the game.

Fast Hockey.
Once the first period passed into history, the game settled down into a fast and furious battle. The Eskimos were the better team, and they were the better team. They were the better team, and they were the better team. They were the better team, and they were the better team.

REGINA WILL PROTEST GAME AT SASKATOON ON NEW YEAR'S DAY

REGINA, Sask., Jan. 1.—Regina Hockey club will file a protest with the Western Canada League officials over the playing of New Year's Day games in Saskatoon, it was announced by Rex Champ following a report from Barney Stanley, manager of the Capitals.

According to Stanley, Lalonde was the leader in a deliberate attack upon "Red" L. McCusker, Regina goalkeeper. Champ declared that unless President Richardson takes some official notice of the case, Regina will refuse to play a team on the ice against Saskatoon again this season.

Saskatoon Crescents Beat Regina Capitals by 4 to 0 In Longest Game of Season

"Red" McCusker Will Have Anything But Pleasant Memories of His Sojourn as New Year's Guest Days Lost Through Crescents' New Player Celebrated His First Appearance by Drawing a Penalty

SASKATOON, Sask., Jan. 1.—Saskatoon Crescents went to the head of the Western Canada Hockey League here tonight by defeating Regina Capitals 4 to 0, making it the third loss for the Capitals in as many starts. The game was one of the longest on record here, taking two hours and a half to play, and was the reason for the length of time consumed was due to injuries to "Red" McCusker, the visiting goalkeeper. Shortly after the start of the second period, McCusker was laid out through being crossed by New Year's Day, four minutes later he fell when saving from Harry Cameron and the latter went over the top of the goal and in doing so his head was cut open by Cameron's first goal. Hardly had he resumed when he was again laid out, this time in a collision with Bill Cook, just as Laurie Scott scored his first goal.

The first period was filled with shouting and ended with no score. Up to the time of McCusker's injuries, the second was just as exciting but from then on the action was all in the hands of the players. The game was a hard fought one, with both teams showing great spirit. The Eskimos were the better team, and they were the better team. They were the better team, and they were the better team. MADE FROM
AN OPERATION

Restored to Health by Taking "Fruit-a-tives"

Made of Fruit Juices and Tonics
The most convincing proof of the true worth of "Fruit-a-tives" as a medicine for women is found in the letters written by them to "Fruit-atives". For instance:
"I suffered with all the symptoms of female trouble, pains low down in the back and sides, constipation and constant headaches. A doctor advised an operation. I started taking "Fruit-a-tives" and the fruit medicines completely relieved me of all my misery."

MORNING NEWS OF THE MARKETS

Closing Day of Old Year on Winnipeg Market Without Special Selling Features

WINNIPEG, Dec. 31.—No special feature marked the closing day of the year on the grain market here. The situation is quite bearish and the majority of the trade looks for somewhat lower levels during the early part of January. The market for coarse grains was steady, prices holding firm and showing little change from day to day. December barley made a jump of seven cents, from 60 to 67, but there was only one sale made at that figure. The cash markets again were devoid of feature.
